

LUSSIER COMMUNITY EDUCATION CENTER

building community, creating opportunities, enriching education

LCEC Community Engagement Manager

The Lussier Community Education Center (LCEC) is a grassroots community center with a 40-year history of strong programs, broad partnerships and grassroots community organizing. Located on the grounds of Jefferson Middle School, the LCEC has a mission of building community, creating opportunities, enriching education.

The Community Engagement Manager is responsible for creating and facilitating relationships that allow a diverse array of people and organizations to share their time and skills to benefit our community through LCEC programs in alignment with the Lussier Framework. This position places and supports volunteers in LCEC staffed programs and manages all aspects of LCEC's all-volunteer programs. Currently we engage over 400 volunteers per year in over 10,000 hours of volunteer work.

Strong candidates will be highly relational, organized, and flexible. They will approach community engagement work from a justice orientation. They will be able to build strong relationships with people of many different backgrounds and provide meaningful experiences that fit both the needs of the Center and the various interests of community members and groups.
